Questions & Answers

1. I am a felon, released from incarceration. Can I vote?

Yes. Maybe.

If you have a felony conviction and your offense is not a common law felony from 1870, and if you are not currently physically incarcerated, you are now eligible to register to vote and do not need to apply for restoration of rights by the Governor prior to registering to vote.

Questions & Answers

2. Am I eligible to vote?

To be Eligible to Register to Vote in Virginia a Person must:

- Be a resident of Virginia
- Be a U. S. Citizen.
- Be 18 years old
- Not currently incarcerated for any felony conviction.
- Not convicted of a disqualifying felony (unless your voting rights have been restored).

Disqualifying felonies are:

- Murder
- Manslaughter
- Involuntary Manslaughter

Questions & Answers

3. How should I fill out my voter registration application if I do not need to apply to have my right to vote restored?

- When completing your voter registration application, you should indicate “yes” to the question about having a felony conviction, and “no” to the question regarding whether your right to vote has been restored, unless you previously had your rights restored by the Governor.
- Answering “no” to the restoration of rights question will not invalidate your application.
